

Adults

How do I read with my child if I'm not a strong reader?

Contact the Adult Literacy Hotline at 410-752-3595 or by email at MDLiteracyHotline@gmail.com.

Tell stories.

Make up stories using the pictures in a book.

Go to the library with your child for activities including Mother Goose on the Loose and Pajama Storytime.

Have your older kids read to you.

Listen to a book on tape.

Call the Maryland Literacy Hotline To Find the Right Class For You

The Maryland Literacy Hotline is available to help residents of Maryland find nearby Adult Literacy, Adult Basic Education classes, GED Exam preparation classes and English as a second Language classes. Call 410-752-3595 for a FREE personal consultation with Dr. Cynthia Campbell to help find the right class for you. Many classes recommended are free of charge.

Find Adult Literacy or GED Classes Near You

Strong City Baltimore

For over 20 years, Strong City Baltimore's Adult Learning Center (ALC) has been serving the needs of the greater Baltimore area with quality, learner-centered instruction at no charge to adults ages 16-years old and older.

Strong City Baltimore offers instruction in:

- Adult Basic Education
- English for Speakers of Other Languages
- Workforce Training

South Baltimore Learning Center

South Baltimore Learning offers classes in:

- Adult Basic Education
- Pre-GED and GED
- External Diploma Program
- Computer Skills
- Career Counselling
- Adult Basic Education (ABE) classes and Pre-GED classes are free. There may be fees associated with GED classes for learners with 9th grade and above reading level.

Baltimore City Community College

Baltimore City Community College offers classes in:

- Adult Basic Education
- Basic Skills (including reading, writing and math)
- GED Prep

Power House Community Center

Living Classrooms operates the POWER House Community Center, located directly in Perkins Homes. POWER House offers financial literacy, English as a Second Language, GED preparatory classes, and job training courses for adults weekly.

Mayor's Office of Employment Development

Visit the MOED website for a calendar of monthly opportunities including workforce development and financial literacy classes.